KEY UTENSILS

food processor, 2 frypans

NOTES

You can use sesame oil or a neutral flavoured oil for the dressing.

Coat the fish fillets with the coconut instead of making the cakes if preferred. Add the ginger to the dressing.

No fish option - white fish fillets are replaced with chicken mince.

1. PREPARE THE VEGETABLES

Julienne or ribbon the carrot. Slice capsicum and spring onions. Halve snow pea sprouts. Toss together.

Halve asian greens lengthways. Set aside.

4. CRISP THE RICE PAPER ROUNDS

Cover base of frypan, big enough to fit the rice paper rounds, with oil over medium-high heat. When oil is hot, place sheet in pan (1 at a time) for 2 seconds until puffed up. Remove with tongs to a sheet of paper towel. Repeat with remaining papers.

2. MAKE THE DRESSING

Combine 1/2 lime zest and juice (wedge remaining) with 1 tsp sugar, 2 tbsp vinegar, 2 tbsp soy sauce and 1 tbsp oil (see notes).

5. COOK THE FISH CAKES & GREENS

Heat a second frypan over medium-high heat with oil. Add asian greens to cook for 2-3 minutes each side until charred. Remove and set aside. Cook fish cakes for 3-4 minutes each side until golden and cooked through.

3. MAKE THE FISH CAKES

Peel and grate ginger to yield 1 tbsp. Roughly chop fish fillets. Blend together with coconut in a food processor along with 1 tbsp soy sauce. Use oiled hands to shape mixture into 12 cakes (see notes).

6. FINISH AND PLATE

Place a rice paper puff on each plate. Toss 1/2 the dressing through salad. Divide over plates with asian greens and fish cakes. Serve with extra rice paper puffs, remaining dressing and lime wedges on the side.
