When zesting lemons, make sure to only remove the brightly coloured flesh of the peel. Avoid the white part, or pith, as this is quite bitter.

1. COOK PASTA & BROCCOLI

Set the oven to 220°C.

Bring a saucepan of water to a boil. Add 1/2 packet pasta and cook according to packet instructions or until al dente. Cut broccoli into florets and add to water for the last 3 minutes (see notes). Drain, rinse and separate broccoli from pasta.

4. MAKE THE SAUCE

Zest 1/2 lemon and chop dill.

Remove the dish from the oven. Gently squash the tomatoes and break up salmon (see notes). Add lemon zest, juice from 1/3 lemon and dill (reserve some for garnish).

2. BAKE THE TOMATOES

Meanwhile, arrange tomatoes in a lined oven dish with crushed garlic, 2 tbsp olive oil, 1/2 tbsp balsamic vinegar, 1 tsp Italian herbs, 1/2 tsp ground paprika, salt and pepper. Toss until well combined and place in the oven to bake for 10 minutes.

5. TOSS IT ALL TOGETHER

Gently toss together the cooked pasta with salmon, tomatoes and sauce from the dish. Adjust seasoning with salt and pepper to taste.

3. ADD THE SALMON

Season salmon fillets with 1/2 tsp Italian herbs, salt and pepper.

After 10 minutes, remove the tomatoes from the oven. Place salmon fillets in the middle and bake for further 8–10 minutes.

6. FINISH AND SERVE

Serve salmon pasta at the table with a side of broccoli and remaining lemon cut into wedges. Sprinkle over any reserved lemon zest and dill.
