Product Spotlight: Lebanese Flatbreads

These delicious flatbreads are baked fresh and without preservatives. Store them in the fridge or freezer until you need them (they defrost very quickly) to ensure they stay fresh.

Bush Dukkah Roasted Roots

with Crispy Flatbreads

Sweet roasted beetroot and carrots with tomato bean cream, crispy flatbreads and a crunchy sprinkle of bush dukkah.

40 minutes | Plant-Based | 2 servings

Make wraps instead

Skip crisping the flatbreads and warm them instead. Fill with roasted vegetables, tomato bean cream, parsley and dukkah, then fold up for an easy, hands-on dinner.

KEY UTENSILS

oven tray x 2, stick blender

NOTES

You can toss the beans and chopped sun-dried tomatoes through the roasted vegetables instead of blending them, if you prefer!

No gluten option - flatbreads are replaced with GF focaccia. Place focaccia on oven rack and toast for 10 minutes until crunchy on the outside and warmed through on the inside.

1. ROAST THE VEGETABLES

Set oven to 220°C.

Cut beetroots and carrots into bite-sized pieces. Toss on a lined oven tray with olive oil, 2 tsp maple syrup, salt and pepper. Roast for 25-30 minutes, or until tender and golden.

2. CRISP THE FLATBREADS

Meanwhile, tear or cut 1/2 packet of flatbreads into rough pieces. Toss with olive oil, 1 tsp cumin or fennel seeds and salt. Spread on a second lined oven tray and bake for 6-8 minutes, or until golden and crispy.

3. MAKE THE TOMATO CREAM

Drain and rinse beans, chop sun-dried tomatoes. Place in a jug with peeled garlic clove, lemon juice, 1/2 cup water, 1 tbsp olive oil, salt and pepper. Blend until smooth, adding more water to loosen if needed. Adjust seasoning to taste.

4. FINISH AND SERVE

Chop parsley.

Serve tomato bean cream with roasted vegetables and crispy flatbreads. Scatter over parsley and dukkah.
