

Product Spotlight: Brussels Sprouts

Brussels sprouts become sweet and nutty when roasted. For best results, cook until tender and golden on the cut sides. Avoid overcooking as they can lose their texture and natural sweetness.

NOTES

Check vegetables after 15 minutes and remove any that are cooked to your liking. Brussels sprouts can vary in size and may cook faster than other vegetables.

1. BOIL THE POTATOES

Set oven to 220°C.

Place baby potatoes in a saucepan and cover with water (halve any larger potatoes). Bring to a boil and simmer for 15 minutes until tender.

2. ROAST THE VEGETABLES

Meanwhile, slice capsicum and halve Brussels sprouts. Remove corn kernels from cob. Toss all on a lined oven tray with 1 1/2 tsp paprika, oil, salt and pepper. Roast for 15–20 minutes, or until tender and golden (see notes).

3. PREPARE THE TOPPINGS

Drain and rinse edamame beans. Thinly slice spring onions.

Toast sesame seeds in a dry frypan over medium-high heat for 1–2 minutes (optional).

Mix Korean sauce and vegan mayonnaise in a bowl.

4. CRISP THE POTATOES

Drain potatoes and place on a second lined oven tray. Gently squash using the base of a mug or potato masher. Drizzle with oil and season with salt and pepper. Roast for 20 minutes, or until golden and crispy.

5. FINISH AND SERVE

Layer the roasted vegetables, crispy potatoes, prepared toppings and smokey mayo (use to taste) on a large serving platter. Serve at the table.
