

Product Spotlight: Za'atar

Za'atar is a Middle Eastern blend of dried herbs, sesame seeds and sumac, a tangy red berry that tastes lemony without any lemon. Za'atar is also the Arabic name for a wild herb related to oregano and thyme!

NOTES

No gluten option - Lebanese flatbread is replaced with GF focaccia. Set oven to 220°C. Place focaccia on oven rack and toast for 10 minutes until crunchy on the outside and warmed through on the inside. Dice and toss through salad.

Za'atar: sesame seeds, sumac, dried oregano, potato fibre, dried coriander, salt, canola oil, food acid

1. PREPARE THE FALAFELS

Set oven to 200°C.
Combine falafel mix and 170ml water in a large bowl. Set aside.

2. CRISP THE FLATBREADS

Tear 2 flatbreads into rough pieces. Toss with olive oil, 1/2 tsp za'atar and salt. Spread on a lined oven tray and bake for 6-8 minutes, or until golden and crisp. Set aside to cool.

3. PREPARE THE TZATZIKI

Chop dill fronds, crush garlic and grate 1/2 cucumber. Combine with coconut yoghurt, 1 tbsp olive oil, 1 tbsp vinegar, salt and pepper. Set aside in fridge until serving.

4. COOK THE FALAFELS

Heat a frypan over medium-high heat with oil. Shape tablespoon-sized falafel balls using wet hands. Add to pan as you go and cook for 7-8 minutes turning, until crispy and cooked through.

5. TOSS THE SALAD

In a large salad bowl, whisk together 1 tbsp vinegar, 2 tbsp olive oil, salt and pepper. Rinse and chop lettuce leaves, parsley and cucumber. Halve tomatoes. Crush and add toasted flatbread. Toss all together.

6. FINISH AND SERVE

Spread tzatziki on a large serving platter. Top with salad and falafels. Sprinkle with remaining za'atar.
