NOTES

We used sesame oil for extra flavour.

If you don't have a food processor, you can crumble the tempeh by hand.

1. COOK THE RICE

Place rice and 2 cups water into a saucepan and season with salt. Bring to a boil, stir, then reduce heat to medium-low. Simmer covered for 10-12 minutes. Stir through coconut milk. Take off heat and allow to stand, covered for 5 minutes.

2. MAKE THE DRESSING

Zest lime (reserve 1 tsp zest for step 5), juice half and wedge remaining. Whisk zest and juice together with 3 tbsp sweet chilli sauce, 1/2 tbsp soy sauce, 1 tbsp vinegar and 3 tbsp water. Set aside.

3. COOK THE ASIAN GREENS

Heat a large frypan with oil. Halve or quarter Asian greens lengthways. Add to frypan and cook for 2-3 minutes each side until tender (cook in batches if necessary). Sprinkle with 1 tbsp soy sauce and pepper when turning. Remove to a plate. Keep frypan.

4. COOK THE TEMPEH

Break up tempeh and place in a food processor. Pulse to mince like consistency (see notes). Re-heat frypan over medium-high heat with oil. Slice and add spring onions (keep some green tops for garnish) and tempeh, cook for 4-5 minutes. Add 2 tbsp prepared dressing and cook for a further minute.

5. SLICE FRESH VEGETABLES

Slice cucumber into rounds and julienne, grate or ribbon carrot.

Stir lime zest through rice and season with salt and pepper.

6. FINISH AND SERVE

Divide coconut rice between plates. Add tempeh crumble, Asian greens and fresh vegetables. Serve with extra dressing and lime wedge on the side.
