FROM YOUR PANTRY

oil (for cooking), salt, pepper, ground cumin (or coriander), smoked paprika

KEY UTENSILS

griddle pan or frypan, frypan

NOTES

The Green Goddess sauce has a little heat from the jalapeños. For a child friendly version, you can use natural or coconut yoghurt instead.

Use a microplane or fine grater for the cheese if you have one.

1. CHAR THE CORN

Heat a griddle pan over high heat. Cut corn into halves and coat with oil. Cook in pan for 8-10 minutes until charred and cooked through.

4. COOK THE TORTILLAS

Warm tortillas in griddle pan according to packet instructions. Keep warm until serving.

2. PREPARE THE SALSA

Meanwhile, dice cucumber and avocado. Chop coriander. Toss together with lime zest and 1/2 the juice (wedge remaining). Set aside.

5. FINISH THE STREET CORN

Coat cooked corn with 2 tbsp green goddess sauce. Grate smoked gouda on top (see notes).

3. COOK THE PULLED CARROT

Heat a frypan over medium-high heat with oil. Slice and add onion. Grate carrots and add to pan along with 1 tbsp cumin and 1 tbsp smoked paprika. Stir through 1/2 cup water and cook for 6-8 minutes until softened. Season with salt and pepper.

6. FINISH AND PLATE

Assemble the tacos with pulled carrot and salsa. Serve with street corn, lime wedges and extra green goddess sauce to taste.
