NOTES

You can use these ingredients to make a chicken fried rice instead! Sauté the capsicum, carrot and corn with the chicken and sauce. Add some garlic or ginger. Toss with cooked rice and garnish with fresh cucumber.

Switch up the flavours and turn this dish into a chicken taco bowl. Season the chicken with Mexican spices and serve with salsa, guacamole or sour cream instead of the soy dressing.

1. COOK THE RICE

Place rice in a saucepan and cover with water. Bring to a boil and simmer for 20 minutes, or until tender. Drain and rinse.

2. PREPARE THE TOPPINGS

Dice capsicum and cucumber. Grate or julienne carrot. Remove corn from cob. Keep separate.

TIP You can add diced avocado, sliced nori sheets, radishes, sprouts or shredded cabbage to your poke bowl if you want to switch up the toppings.

3. COOK THE CHICKEN

In a bowl, combine 1 tbsp soy sauce, 1 tbsp sesame oil, 1/2 tsp sugar and 1/2 tbsp vinegar. Coat chicken with 1/2 tbsp prepared sauce. Heat a frypan over medium-high heat with sesame oil. Cook chicken for 3–5 minutes each side or until cooked through. Stir 1/2 tbsp water through remaining sauce and reserve for dressing.

TIP You can use 1 tbsp orange juice instead of adding the water and sugar to your dressing. We used brown sugar for the dressing.

4. FINISH AND SERVE

Divide rice, chicken and toppings among bowls. Spoon over dressing to taste.

TIP Garnish your poke bowl with toasted sesame seeds or togarashi spice if you have some.
