NOTES

Boost the broth with a splash of coconut milk for creaminess or a spoonful of peanut butter for a nutty twist.

Top with thinly shredded cabbage, baby spinach or sliced snow peas if you want extra veggies.

1. COOK THE NOODLES

Bring a saucepan of water to a boil. Add noodles and cook according to packet instructions or until tender. Drain and rinse well with cold water to stop the cooking process.

2. COOK THE BEEF

Heat oil in a large saucepan over medium-high heat. Add beef mince and cook for 6-8 minutes until browned. Season with salt and pepper. Remove from pan and set aside.

TIP Add a splash of soy sauce, fish sauce, or a pinch of five-spice powder for extra depth of flavour. We added 1 tsp five-spice and 1 crushed garlic clove.

3. SIMMER THE BROTH

Heat oil in same pan. Wedge and add tomato. Slice, white ends of the spring onions and add to pan. Sauté for 2-3 minutes. Stir in a crumbled stock cube or stock paste with 3 cups water. Simmer for 10-15 minutes. Season to taste (see tip).

TIP Enhance the broth with fish sauce, sugar, or a splash of vinegar for balance. Add grated ginger, garlic, star anise or a cinnamon quill to simmer for warmth. We added 2 tbsp fish sauce, 1 tbsp sugar and 1/2 tbsp rice wine vinegar.

4. FINISH AND SERVE

Slice spring onion tops and chilli. Chop coriander. Divide cooked noodles among serving bowls. Ladle over broth and top with cooked beef and fresh toppings.

TIP For extra richness, swirl in a spoonful of sesame oil or a sprinkle of ground white pepper before serving. Serve with lime wedges if you have some
