NOTES

Transform this dish into a chilli con carne by using a Mexican spice mix instead of curry. Add some tinned beans and serve with your favourite toppings.

1. COOK THE RICE

Place rice in a saucepan, cover with 300ml water. Cover with a lid and bring to a boil. Reduce to medium-low heat for 10-15 minutes. Remove from heat, stand for 5 minutes. Stir carefully with a fork.

2. COOK THE BEEF

Heat a large pan over medium-high heat with oil. Add beef and cook, breaking up with a spatula. Dice onion and add to pan with 1/2-1 tbsp curry powder (see notes). Cook for 5 minutes, or until beef is browned and fragrant. Season with salt and pepper.

TIP You can substitute the curry powder with ground cumin and ground turmeric if you prefer a milder flavour. Use curry powder to taste as they can vary in heat.

3. SIMMER THE CURRY

Grate apple. Dice sweet potato (1cm) and tomato. Add all to the pan as you go. Stir in 1/2 tbsp flour and 3/4 cup water. Cover and bring to a simmer. Cook for 10 minutes or until sweet potato is tender and sauce is thickened. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

TIP For extra sweetness you can add some sultanas to simmer and plump up in the sauce. Stir through 1/4 cup mango chutney at the end for spiced sweetness and depth of flavour.

4. FINISH AND SERVE

Chop coriander and use to garnish curry. Serve over rice.

TIP Serve with a dollop of yoghurt and squeeze of lime if you have some.
