NOTES

You can bulk up the dish with extra vegetables if preferred. Sliced capsicum, mushrooms or zucchini work well with the pearl couscous.

No gluten option – pearl couscous is replaced with white quinoa. Place quinoa in a saucepan and cover with plenty of water. Bring to a boil and simmer for 10–15 minutes or until tender. Drain and rinse. Drain quinoa for a minimum of 5 minutes or press down in a sieve to squeeze out excess liquid.

1. COOK THE COUSCOUS

Set oven to 220°C.

Bring a saucepan with water to a boil. Add pearl couscous and cook for 8 minutes or until tender but still firm. Drain and rinse in cold water.

2. ROAST THE CAULIFLOWER

Combine 1/2 tbsp ground coriander (see tip) with 1 tbsp olive oil, salt and pepper. Carefully cut cauliflower into 2–3 steaks and place on a lined oven tray with any broken florets. Rub spice mix over steaks and roast in oven for 20–25 minutes or until tender.

TIP Swap coriander for ground cumin, smoked paprika, or a flavour paste like harissa for variation.

3. SAUTÉ THE VEGETABLES

Heat a large frypan over medium–high heat with oil. Dice onion, crush garlic, and cook for 3 minutes until softened. Halve and add tomatoes (see notes). Cook for 5–7 minutes, breaking down as you go. Take pan off heat, stir in cooked couscous and 2 tbsp butter. Season well with salt and pepper to taste.

TIP Add fresh parsley, or dried herbs like oregano or thyme. Stir in a little stock paste for extra depth.

4. FINISH AND SERVE

Serve cauliflower steaks on a bed of tomato couscous and side of mesclun leaves. Dollop with yoghurt, chop almonds and use to garnish.

TIP Dress the mesclun leaves with lemon juice or vinaigrette if preferred.
