NOTES

If the noodles are stuck together, rinse them with cold water to loosen before adding to the stir fry.

You can add fried egg on top for extra protein. Toss in sliced capsicum, shredded cabbage or julienned carrot for extra veggies.

No gluten option – egg noodles are replaced with rice noodles.

1. COOK THE NOODLES AND BLANCH BROCCOLI

Bring a saucepan of water to boil. Cut broccoli into small florets and blanch for 2 minutes. Remove with a sieve or tongs and set aside. Add noodles to boiling water and cook according to packet instructions. Drain and set aside.

TIP Toss drained noodles with sesame oil to prevent sticking.

2. PREPARE THE STIR-FRY

Peel and grate ginger. Crush garlic. Combine both in a bowl with 1/4 cup soy sauce, 2 tbsp vinegar, 2 tbsp oil, and 1 tsp chilli flakes (if using). Slice onion and cut eggplant into angular 2–3 cm pieces.

TIP If you like a sweeter sauce, add 1 tsp honey or brown sugar. For a creamy peanut sauce, stir in 2 tbsp peanut butter and 1 tbsp water.

3. COOK THE STIR FRY

Heat a wok or large frypan over high heat with oil. When pan is smoking hot, add onion and eggplant, cooking until slightly charred (5 mins). Move to side, add oil. Toss in broccoli and stir-fry for 2–3 minutes. Add noodles and prepared sauce, tossing until well combined (see notes).

TIP Use sesame oil for extra fragrance.

4. FINISH AND SERVE

Roughly chop cashews and sprinkle over the noodles. Serve at the table.

TIP Garnish with sesame seeds, sliced spring onions, fresh coriander, or a squeeze of lime.
