

Product Spotlight: Thyme

During the Middle Ages, thyme was thought to ward off nightmares if placed under a pillow before sleeping! It's also a good source of vitamin C.

KEY UTENSILS

large frypan with lid, kettle

NOTES

If you have some fresh parsley or dried herbs such as oregano, parsley or Italian herbs, add them into the meatball mix, along with an egg and some breadcrumbs for extra flavour.

If you don't want to make noodles, you can cut the vegetables and add them at step 2 and sauté into the sauce.

No beef option – beef mince is replaced with chicken mince.

1. MAKE THE MEATBALLS

Heat a large frypan over medium-high heat with oil. Combine the mince with half the thyme, 1/2 tbsp tomato paste, salt and pepper (see notes). Roll into even sized meatballs using oiled hands and add to pan as you go. Cook for 5-6 minutes turning until browned. Remove from pan and set aside.

2. COOK VEGETABLES

Reduce pan heat to medium-low. Slice leek and celery, crush garlic clove (see notes). Add to pan with oil and remainder of the thyme. Cook stirring for 2-3 minutes, add remaining tomato paste and cook for further 3-4 minutes stirring.

3. SIMMER THE SAUCE

Bring the heat on the pan up to medium-high. Add 250ml water to the pan with stock. Return meatballs to pan, season with salt and pepper. Simmer semi-covered for 8-10 minutes.

4. MAKE THE NOODLES

Boil the kettle. Ribbon or julienne zucchini and carrot into noodles using a julienne peeler/spiralizer or vegetable peeler. Pour boiling water over to heat through then drain.

5. FINISH AND PLATE

Evenly divide noodles among bowls. Spoon over even amounts of sauce and meatballs. Garnish with cashew parmesan.
