NOTES

We recommend 4-5 meatballs per roll. You can cook all the meatballs and freeze for another meal or use the next day!

You can use these ingredients to create a fresh Vietnamese-style salad by tossing together the pickled vegetables, chopped coriander, and any extra veggies you have on hand, like mesclun leaves, shredded cabbage or radishes. Save the rolls for another meal.

Enhance your Banh Mi with sliced red chilli for a spicy kick, or sprinkle on some roasted peanuts for added crunch and texture! You can also add a squeeze of lime juice for a burst of freshness.

No gluten option - bread rolls are replaced with GF Turkish rolls.

1. PICKLE THE VEGETABLES

Julienne or ribbon the carrot. Slice cucumber. Toss in a bowl with 1 tbsp vinegar, 1 tsp sugar and 1/4 tsp salt. Set aside.

TIP If you don't have white vinegar you can use apple cider or rice wine vinegar. We used white sugar.

2. COOK THE MEATBALLS

Heat a frypan over medium-high heat with oil. Cook meatballs for 10-12 minutes turning or until cooked through (see tip).

TIP You can cook the meatballs in an air fryer or oven instead. Toast the hot dog rolls in the pan before cooking the meatballs if preferred.

3. PREPARE THE FILLINGS

Combine aioli with 2 tbsp sweet chilli sauce. Roughly chop coriander. Set aside.

TIP You can use sriracha or hot chilli sauce if preferred. You can add sliced red chilli or spring onions if you have some.

4. FINISH AND SERVE

Slice open hot dog rolls lengthways. Spread with sweet chilli aioli and fill with even amounts of pickled vegetables, meatballs and coriander.

TIP You can bring all the ingredients to the table for each person to assemble their own.
